

SPIM
SCP
2019

LEAD THE WAY

LEVERAGING PSYCHOLOGICAL SCIENCE TO IMPROVE THE WORKPLACE

SPEAKER BIO

Laura Morgan Roberts, PhD

Topic: Seven Conversations [We Should Be Having] about Diversity, Inclusion, and Positive Organizing at Work.

Dr. Roberts is an architect of personal and professional alignment who helps leaders to unlock the pathways for constructing, sustaining and restoring positive identities at work. She has published her work on authenticity, identity, diversity, strengths, and value creation in her edited book, Exploring Positive Identities and Organizations (Roberts & Dutton, Eds.) and in over 30 articles, book chapters, and case studies. She is the co-founder and Principal of R-PAQ Solutions, LLC, an Atlanta-based research and consulting firm that brings strength-based practices to leaders who seek extraordinary performance and personal fulfillment.

Faculty appointment have included: Harvard Business School | University of Michigan | Wharton | Simmons School of Management.

FEBRUARY 6-10 2019

THE WORTHINGTON RENAISSANCE FORT WORTH HOTEL

