

Please support Randall P. White, Ph.D. for APA Board of Directors, Member-at-Large seat

“As a leadership consultant, researcher, and teacher I work with organizations on issues of change, ambiguity and diversity. I coach real people through turbulent circumstances.”

Why Randy?

- He is committed to APA and understands how to bridge the various divisions and subgroups to help them work together effectively.
- He has the skills to create respectful, safe spaces where everyone's voice can be heard.
- He has the background to facilitate positive changes within APA and to help APA influence positive changes in our society.

In 2015, Dr. White received the RHR Award for Excellence in Consulting - Division 13's highest honor

Randall P. White, Ph.D.

APA Board of Directors, Member-at-Large

APA Leadership highlights

- Member-at-Large, Council Leadership Team, 2014-present
- Member, Council of Representatives (COR), Society of Consulting Psychologists (D13), 2012-2014, 2016-present
- Chair/Co-Chair New COR Member Orientation Committee, 2015-present
- President, Division 13, 2006
- Fellow, Divisions 1 and 13; Member, Division 14
- Co-founder of General Applied Psychologists and Psychology Caucus

Research highlights

- Member of Center for Creative Leadership's research team on how leaders learn, grow, and change
- Researcher and co-author of ground-breaking study on women in executive leadership roles: Breaking the Glass Ceiling
- Co-author of pioneering work on ambiguity and change: Relax, It's Only Uncertainty

“ I believe my experience bringing together disparate groups to facilitate difficult conversations makes me the best candidate for APA's Board of Directors.”

For Randy's full Curriculum Vitae go to <https://edgp.com/RPW> or scan this code