An Introduction to Consulting Psychology: Working with Individuals, Groups, and Organizations
| Rodney Lowman, PhD | 1.5 CE’s

Abstract: This presentation provides an overview of the field of Consulting Psychology for psychologists and psychologists-in-training moving into the field. Using the model outlined in An Introduction to Consulting Psychology: Working with Individuals, Groups, and Organizations written by the author as part of the Society of Consulting Psychologists "Fundamentals of Consulting Psychologists" book series published by the American Psychological Association. Case examples will illustrate the models and ways to obtain further training are discussed.

Rodney Lowman, PhD

Rodney L. Lowman, PhD, ABAP is Distinguished Professor Emeritus and Past Program Director and Dean, Organizational Psychology Programs, California School of Professional Psychology, and Provost/VPAA and Acting President of Alliant International University. He is also President of Lowman & Richardson/Consulting Psychologists, based in San Diego, which provides career counseling and coaching. Dr. Lowman, a licensed psychologist, is the author or editor of 12 books and monographs, has published over 130 peer-reviewed articles and chapters, and has made hundreds of professional presentations all over the world. He is Fellow of the American Psychological Association's Divisions 1 (General Psychology), 12 (Society of Clinical Psychology), 13 (Society of Consulting Psychology), 14 (Society for Industrial and Organizational Psychology), 17 (Society of Counseling Psychology) and 52 (International). His books include: The Ethical Practice of Consulting Psychology (with Stewart Cooper); An Introduction to Consulting Psychology: Working with Individuals, Groups, and Organizations, Internationalizing Multiculturalism: Expanding Professional Competencies in a Globalized World; The Ethical Practice of Psychology in Organizations (2nd ed.), Handbook of Organizational Consulting Psychology, The Clinical Practice of Career Assessment: Interests, Abilities, Personality, and Counseling & Psychotherapy of Work Dysfunctions.