

THE NEXT WAVE OF LEADERSHIP

ACCELERATING DEVELOPMENT
INCREASING IMPACT

Dr. Jennifer J. Deal is a Senior Research Scientist at the Center for Creative Leadership (CCL©) in San Diego, California. There she is the manager of CCL's World Leadership Survey and the Emerging Leaders research project, and has published on topics such as generational issues, the Always On work environment, the strategic use of information in negotiation, executive selection, cultural adaptability, global management, and women in management. She is also an Affiliated Research Scientist at the Center for Effective Organizations at the University of Southern California, and a contributor to The Wall Street Journal's "Experts" panel on leadership.

Dr. Deal has published three books Success for the New Global Manager, Retiring the Generation Gap and What Millennials Want from Work (co-authored with Dr. Alec Levenson). Her work on global management and leadership, generational differences, and the Always On work environment have been featured in such media outlets as the Harvard Business Review, The Economist, New York Times, Wall Street Journal, NBC Nightly News, The Guardian, strategy&, Forbes, Fortune, South China Morning Post, and Globe and Mail.

Dr. Deal holds a B.A. from Haverford College and an M.A. and Ph.D. in industrial/organizational psychology with a specialty in political psychology from The Ohio State University.